

BELD EnergySmart Home Program

Rebates for energy efficiency improvements

As part of our EnergySmart Home program, BELD offers up to $500 rebates for ductless mini-split heat pump systems. High efficiency, room-to-room zone controls, and the ability to heat and cool, make these a smart choice for many homes.

Who can apply for a rebate?

BELD customers who have an active residential account.

How much is the rebate?

Rebate amounts vary with the rated efficiency of the systems. Call the Energy Advisor at 781.348.1032 with any questions. BELD continues to provide a $50 bill credit for EnergyStar room and central air conditioning units through our appliance rebate program (www.beld.com/apprebate).

Rebate amount	Qualifying products	SEER	EER	HSPF
$150	Ductless Mini-Split Heat Pump	≥ 16	≥ 12	≥ 8.2
$300	Ductless Mini-Split Heat Pump	≥ 19	≥ 12.5	≥ 10
$500	Ductless Mini-Split Heat Pump	≥ 20	≥ 13	≥ 10

Ductless Mini-Split cooling only units are not eligible

SEER —Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (measures how efficiently a cooling system will operate)

EER —Energy Efficiency Ratio (a measure of instantaneous cooling efficiency)

HSPF —Heating Seasonal Performance Factor (used to measure a heat pumps heating efficiency)

AHRI —Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute

A copy of the AHRI certificate of product rating is required to verify efficiency. Eligibility based on AHRI SEER and EER rating of outdoor condenser and indoor coil working together. Rounding up of SEER/EER ratings is not acceptable.

How can I apply for a rebate?

You must fill out the EnergySmart Rebate, found on the reverse side of this sheet. Include the following required documents:

- A copy of the contractors invoice
- The AHRI certificate of product rating
- Proof of payment

Sales receipts must be dated less than six months prior to the date of the application. Units must be installed at the account location. BELD staff reserves the right to inspect the installation on premises.
